

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Energe Foundation: Organizational & Program Overview

Energe Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization focused on helping underserved and low-income youth and adults build practical skills, strengthen digital literacy, and prepare for employment and long-term economic stability. Our initial work is centered in Richland County, South Carolina, with the ability to expand as programs and funding grow.

This overview gives foundations, corporate partners, government agencies, and community funders a clear place to review our organization and program priorities. Because Energe Foundation is a launch-stage organization, all outcomes are presented as planned measures until verified program results are available.

Mission

Energe Foundation empowers underserved and low-income individuals through education, workforce development, digital literacy, and community outreach programs that create pathways to employment, economic stability, and long-term self-sufficiency.

Vision

To build stronger communities by reducing poverty and expanding opportunities through education and support services.

Funding Priorities

Job Readiness Program

Support the planned five-week workforce-readiness program, including instruction, practical assessments, interview preparation, and employer/HR participation when available.

Digital Literacy & Workforce Technology

Support instruction and tools that help participants use workplace technology, digital productivity tools, online applications, email, and other practical employment systems.

Participant Support

Support approved need-based barriers to employment readiness, such as limited transportation or interview-clothing assistance, subject to written rules, eligibility, and available funding.

Community Outreach

Support outreach, recruitment, workshops, employer/community engagement, and other activities that connect underserved communities with training and opportunity.

Capacity Building

Support responsible infrastructure needed to operate and scale programs, including qualified staffing, technology, accounting, legal/compliance support, software, evaluation, and appropriate program facilities.

Note: Energe Foundation is a launch-stage 501(c)(3) organization. Program designs, schedules, and measurement categories described in this document are planned and subject to funding and availability. Where an outcome has not yet been verified, it is presented as a planned measure, not an achieved result.*
